

KOKOLOFITWE GAME LODGE

HUNTING RULES AND INDEMNITY FORM

- 1) Right of admission strictly reserved.
- 2) All hunters and guests enter the premises and use the facilities at their own risk. Kokolofitwe Game Lodge will not be held responsible for any loss, damage or harm, to persons or property, or any costs associated thereto.
- 3) Hunting on Sundays (until 12h00) only permissible with prior arrangement and will carry additional day fees.
- 4) Each hunter must have his own firearm as well as a valid firearm license, to be shown upon request.
- 5) No loaded firearms allowed within the confines of the lodge, except when the owner of Kokolofitwe Game Lodge is present and has given explicit consent thereto.
- 6) All firearms will be locked in the safe when not hunting by the owner of Kokolofitwe Game Lodge.
- 7) All hunters must be able to hit a target from at least 200m consistently with their own firearm before they will be allowed to hunt on the property.
- 8) In the case where an animal is wounded, all hunting will be ceased until the animal has been located at an additional rate of R250/hour. If the animal can not be located, the full price for that animal will be included on the invoice.
- 9) Shots may only be fired in the direction indicated by the owner of Kokolofitwe Game Lodge. The property is surrounded by cattle farms, and as such only specific directions may be fired in.
- 10) A maximum of 10 animals will be hunted per day in total.
- 11) No alcohol allowed on hunting expeditions. The owner of Kokolofitwe Game Lodge has the right to deny any person whom he believes to be under the influence of alcohol/illegal substances the right to hunt and may request such a person to vacate the property all together.
- 12) Any damage to property of Kokolofitwe Game Lodge will be charged to the offending party's invoice.
- 13) Any damage to the chalets will carry a minimum fee of R1,500.00.
- 14) All the rules, whether written or verbally communicated, must be followed.
- 15) Only game that was arranged for will be hunted. Any game shot that was not arranged for, be it on purpose or by accident, will carry a 100% mark-up on quoted prices.
- 16) Indemnities of all hunters in the hunting party must be submitted and half of the accommodation fees must be paid in order to secure booking.
- 17) All outstanding amounts must be settled before departure.
- 18) Hunters who wish to hunt for one day only will have to book between Monday and Thursday, unless prior arrangements have been made.
- 19) Hunters who wish to hunt on weekends will have to book accommodation for at least one night.
- 20) Hunting will only take place in hunting season, i.e. May – August, except with prior arrangements.
